

KIPP DC	English Language Arts	Name: Date: Homeroom:
Unit 1: Short Stories	CW - 11 Characterization	The Golden Rule: In every story, there are people in a place. Characters react in response to a conflict. Time passes and things change.
Bigger Picture: Getting to know different characters is one of the greatest joys of reading! We get to meet new people every time we open a book.	Assessment: /10

Character name: _____

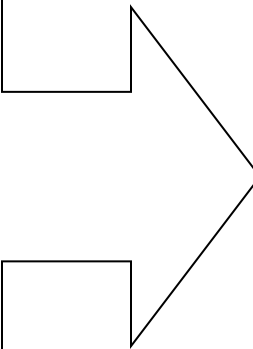

Direct Characterization:
("Carla is sneaky" pg. 6)

- *
- *
- *
- *
- *
- *
- *

Indirect Characterization – Inferences:
("He smiled widely" pg. 34)

- *
- *
- *
- *
- *
- *

What we know about this character:

*I can infer that _____ is _____ as evidenced by _____

*I can infer that _____ is _____ as evidenced by _____

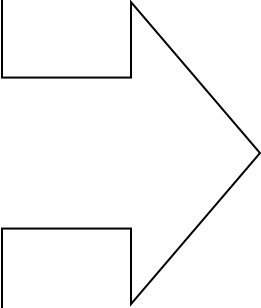

*I can infer that _____ is _____ as evidenced by _____

*I can infer that _____ is _____ as evidenced by _____

Character name: _____

Direct Characterization:
("Carla is sneaky" pg. 6)

- *
- *
- *
- *
- *
- *
- *

What we know about this character:

*I can infer that _____ is
_____ as evidenced by

*I can infer that _____ is
_____ as evidenced by

*I can infer that _____ is
_____ as evidenced by

*I can infer that _____ is
_____ as evidenced by

*I can infer that _____ is
_____ as evidenced by

Indirect Characterization:
("He smiled widely" pg. 34)

- *
- *
- *
- *
- *
- *
- *

