Mother ducks sit on the eggs. After 28 days, the eggs hatch. Soon, the mother ducks lead their ducklings to homes by a lake or pond.
Ducks fly to warm places for the winter. In the spring, the ducks fly back.

The ducks find places to build nests. The mother ducks lay eggs in the nest. One duck can lay as many as 12 eggs.