

Name: _____

Date: _____

8th grade Writing/ Mr. G.

Writing is Jawsome!

Capitalization Training II

Directions: Using the rules you learned in class, correctly capitalize the mistakes in the following sentences.

1. Students believe they will get in the n.b.a. if they practice their jump-shots, so why don't they believe they'll make it to college if they do their homework?
2. The small world ride represents all of the nationalities of the world: american, serbian, japanese and italian, just to name a few.
3. Ms. Horne's favorite team in the n.h.l is the boston bruins.
4. cinderella's castle and sleeping beauty's castle are the star attractions of disney world and disney land.
5. Did you know the cheshire cat can speak french?
6. Okay, I know your favorite subject is writing, but what about science, math, literature, history, and health?
7. Mr. Krause is a model of r.e.a.c.h.; only someone with true citizenship would wear a cat's tail and fuzzy pink ears for town meeting.
8. I used to work at borders, books, and music inc.
9. Have you ever been to the empire state building?
10. According to ric riordan, author of the lightning thief, it's the new mount olympus.

Score: _____/10