

Name: _____

Date: _____

8th grade Writing/ Mr. G.

Writing is Jawsome!

Study Guide: Capitalization Rules

Directions: Using the rules you learned in class, correctly capitalize the errors in the following sentences.

- 1) The golden afternoon is a club or g.a. is a group of singing flowers who won't let Alice join.
- 2) They think alice is a weed who will ruin their beautiful choir.
- 3) Alice asks mr. caterpillar who he is, and Mr. Caterpillar responds by asking, "who are you?"
- 4) Alice thinks Mr. Caterpillar is speaking chinese or yugoslavian.
- 5) He points her in the direction of tweedle dee and tweedle dumb, a pair of boys who act like clowns from the barium and bailey circus.
- 6) They tell her a story about a walrus who tricks oysters to go dancing with him at danger beach.
- 7) The oysters are fooled by the walrus and end up as his dinner at the oyster shack.
- 8) "what an excellent meal," the walrus says. "i think I'll go dancing more often."
- 9) Alice wrote a letter to the queen, telling her that her world is too crazy and needs rules.
- 10) She signed it 'sincerely, the sane one.'
- 11) On April 24, in the spring, Alice also went to a tea party with the mad hatter.
- 12) Everyone was drinking tea except for alice, who was confused why the hosts were putting jam, hammers, and mounds of sugar in their tea.
- 13) Alice also played croquet, an english sport using a flamingo and hedgehog.

Name: _____

Date: _____

8th grade Writing/ Mr. G.

Writing is Jawsome!

14) She laughed when the cheshire cat made the queen lift up her dress to reveal her heart underwear, causing the queen to yell, "off with her head!"