What Happened Next?

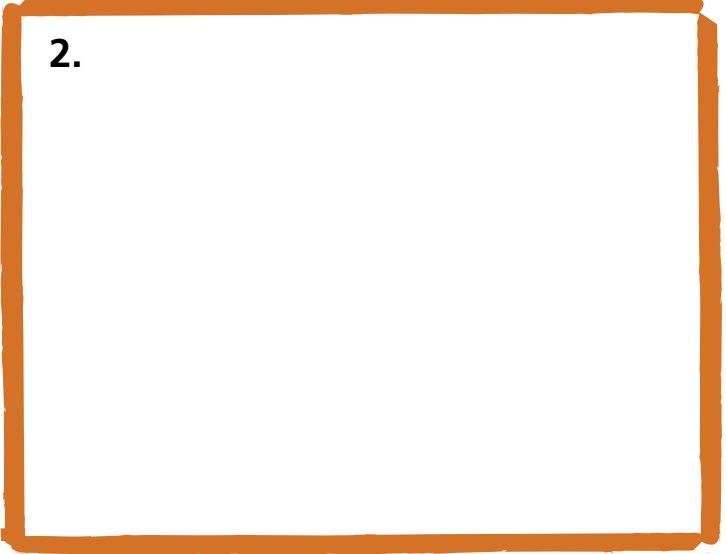

DIRECTIONS: Read the story starter and then create a storyboard showing what you think happened next. Be sure to put each important event in your story in its own box. Below each box, write a word or sentence describing the action.

STORY STARTER: "Your teacher decides to take the class on a surprise field trip. Excitedly, you get on the bus and take your seat. The next thing you know, the bus has come to a stop and the door is opening...."
