

Name: _____ Date: _____

Listening Comprehension – White Wolf

Fact and Opinion- Nonfiction writing often gives facts as well as opinions. Facts are true statements that can be proved. Opinions are what someone thinks, feels, or believes and they can't be proved.

As your teacher reads aloud, answer questions by looking for facts, but be careful!! Look for opinions as well.....

1. List three facts about the white wolf. (JOT one, two, or three words for each bullet)

- _____
- _____
- _____

2. Use context clues to decide what “litter” means. (complete sentence)

---

---

---

3. How do the packmates help the white wolf. (complete sentence)

---

---

---

4. What does the wolf do during the long arctic summer? (JOT one, two, or three words for each bullet)

- _____
- _____
- _____

5. Use context clues to find what “barren” means. (complete sentence)

---

---

---

6. Hunting can be dangerous for a wolf.

- fact      or      opinion    (circle the answer)
- How do you know? (complete sentence)

---

---

7. What opinion does the author share about the wolf’s life? (complete sentence)

---

---

---

8. Explain the biggest challenge for the wolf. Use facts. (complete sentence)

---

---

---

Drawing Time!! Draw a picture of your favorite part of the story and write a sentence.....