DIFFERENT FORMS OF STANDARD ENGLISH
INFORMAL AND FORMAL

When we greet another person, or when we say goodbye, we use different words depending on whether we know the person well. Read the words below and write a sentence to show whether you would use them formally (someone you don't know) or informally (someone you know well).

For example

Hi Hi," said Lucy as she bounded up to her friend, Olivia, in the playground.

Farewell The prince called out a farewell to the beautiful princess as he rode away from the palace.

What's up? _____

How do you do? _____

Hello. _____

It's been a pleasure to meet you. _____

Now choose one example of your own. It can be either a greeting or a farewell and informal or formal
