

“THE STORY OF AN HOUR” ~ SOCRATIC SEMINAR “TRACKING” IDEAS SHEET

Directions: As a member of the outer circle, you are responsible for listening carefully, and “tracking” key ideas as they’re discussed by members of the inner circle. Take notes below while you are listening to the discussion. The thoroughness and thoughtfulness with which you complete this sheet will be used to help determine part of your grade for the discussion – you’re required to follow at least three conversational threads in detail.

Key “Thread” (aka Subject)	Notes of Discussion
EXAMPLE: 1. “Why was the narrator so confident?”
1.
2.
3.

Respond to – i.e. add your own ideas – one of the ideas you’ve heard in a very brief paragraph:

