

Revolutionary War

Review

After completing this unit, students will be able to answer the following questions:

- What key people, events, or ideologies contributed to the creation and content of the Declaration of Independence?
- What are at least four major battles of the Revolutionary War and what was their significance in the greater context of the War?
- Who were some of the most important military figures in the American Revolution? Who were some of the important political figures?
- What are at least three notable political events/actions that occurred during the Revolutionary War, aside from the Declaration of Independence?
- What was the immediate impact (of the outcome) of the Revolutionary War in America? In Britain? Also, identify some of the longer-term consequences of the War in each country.