

Algebraic Thinking

Goals and Objectives

At the end of this unit, students will be able to:

- Recognize and describe numerical patterns by finding a rule
- Evaluate single and multi-variable expressions with given values for the variables
- Write and evaluate expressions using the order of operations
- Solve multiplication and division variable problems
- Use various strategies to solve word problems