

Geometry

Goals and Objectives

At the end of this unit, students will be able to:

- Classify and identify angles and different types of angle pairs
- Recognize and understand the properties of triangles and polygons
- Find unknown measure of congruent figures and recognize similarity between figures
- Perform different types of transformations