

Probability

Goals and Objectives

At the end of this unit, students will be able to:

- Recognize and calculate theoretical and experimental probabilities
- Use tree diagrams to list all possible outcomes of a series of events
- Count all permutations and combinations of a certain amount of events
- Find the probability of two independent as well as two dependent events occurring