

The Later Middle Ages

Review

At the end of this unit, students will be able to:

- How was the power of the Pope and the Catholic Church different or similar to the powers of kings and secular governments?
- Why did the Pope ask Christians to go on the Crusades? How did the Crusades change the relationship between Christians and other religious groups?
- How were churches and clergy important in European society?
- What was the philosophy of Thomas Aquinas? How did he help the development of the early university system in Europe?
- Why was the Magna Carta important in English history? How has it influenced American law and government today?
- What was the Hundred Years' War about? Who was Joan of Arc?
- What impact did the Black Death have on European society?
- Who led the Christian conquest of Spain? What was the Spanish Inquisition?
