

The Articles of Confederation

Your teacher will provide you with several sites you can look at to answer the following questions.

http://www.congressforkids.net/Independence\_articles.htm

www.yale.edu/lawweb/avalon/artconf.htm

<http://www.factmonster.com/ipka/A0877703.html>

<http://www.socialstudiesforkids.com/articles/ushistory/articlesofconfederation1.htm>

- (1) How many articles are in the document?
- (2) How many "states" were represented?
- (3) What was the name given to the union of the states?
- (4) According to Article V, how many votes will each state have in Congress?
- (5) According to Article XI, what country would have been allowed to join the union?
- (6) What rights were included on the Articles of Confederation that are included on our current Bill of Rights?